CURRENT STATUS FOR ALL INTERNATIONAL COUNTRIES

Details on global level health advisory details are available at the travel.state.gov website.

COUNTRY SPECIFIC INFORMATION

The International Air Transport Association (IATA) Travel Centre is a structured and influential resource for the air travel industry and advocates for safe, secure and sustainable air travel that connects and enriches our world. The IATA maintains an interactive COVID-19 travel regulations map which is maintained through their partnership with airlines and government agencies worldwide.

The CDC is also a respected resource for health updates. They provide a comprehensive health and travel map that can assist in your company's travel guidelines and management.

We have reviewed the details and provide the following overviews by country to assist in your understanding and awareness of country-specific travel statuses, along with country-specific links for full details. We also work closely with e-Travel Technologies who have provided a comprehensive data portal with country-specific alerts for international travelers.
